

Carlsbad Oaks Conservation Bank is located in Carlsbad, California. The bank has preservation credits available for a variety of riparian and upland habitats. Once the permitting agencies approve use of a conservation bank to compensate for project impacts, purchasing credits is as easy as writing a check. The credit price includes the cost of land, mitigation, long-term management, and all other responsibilities associated with mitigation.

McCollum & Sweetwater
Mitigation and Conservation Banks

Contact:

McCollum & Sweetwater
for credit pricing and availability.

mccollum@mccollum.com
www.mccollum.com/mitigation

10196 Clover Ranch Drive
Sacramento, CA 95829

San Diego
Barry Jones
619-742-2068

Sacramento
Michael McCollum
919-688-2040

Carlsbad Oaks Conservation Bank

For your riparian preservation and upland habitat mitigation needs, consider purchasing conservation credits from the Carlsbad Oaks Conservation Bank.

Located near the intersection of Faraday Avenue and Orion Street in Carlsbad, California, the Service area for conservation credits includes the North San Diego County NCCP plan areas.

Contact the bank credit sales team for more information

Habitat Types Available at the Bank Include:

- California gnatcatcher occupied Coastal Sage Scrub
- Southern Maritime Chaparral
- Freshwater Marsh
- Coyote Brush Scrub
- Southern Mixed Chaparral
- Willow Riparian Forest
- Oak Riparian Forest
- Southern Willow Scrub
- Cismontane Alkali Marsh

Sensitive Plant Species

- Nuttal's Scrub Oak
- California adolphia
- Summer Holly
- Southwestern Spiny Rush